Uncertainties in Soil Mechanics and Water Resources: Dates in the winter semester 2025/2026

Dear students,

The following lecture dates are planned for the Uncertainties in Soil Mechanics and Water Resources Module. In the winter semester, all dates will take place in presence in room PB-B 018.

This joint course is taught by Prof. Kerstin Lesny and Prof. Paolo Reggiani. Prof. Lesny is responsible for the part Uncertainties in Soil Mechanics whereas Prof. Reggiani will teach Uncertainties in Water Resources. The scheduling as well as any changes to the dates will be announced in the lectures and via the Moodle course hosted by the Chair of Geotechnical Engineering.

Our Moodle course will only contain material related to Prof. Lesny's part of the course. For Prof. Reggiani's part please check the information he will provide. To gain access to this Moodle course, it is necessary that you register for the module via Unisono first. Afterwards you will receive the registration key from us by e-mail.
